

I do not wish to have people using cell phones on air flights.
There is already enough noise and potential for problems without having passengers focusing on telephone calls as opposed to the flight attendants.